

The library is a space for study and research and it is accessible to all

"The user is responsible for treating everyone with respect and showing consideration for other users' right to use the services offered in a pleasant and welcoming environment, avoiding disrespectful behaviour."

(University Library System Charter of Services, Rights and Duties of the user)*

Library staff shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with these rules.

In the library YOU CAN

Study in a comfortable and pleasant environment

Bring a flask or a small bottle of water

Use personal devices for study and research purposes

Book a seat with Affluences

Bring backpacks and bags

Enter accompanied by the assistance dog

Study personal materials

Take part in the life of a space dedicated for centuries to education and hospitality

In the library YOU MUST NOT

Disturb other users' study and research activities

Bring food or drinks other than water

Leave books and personal items unattended. They are under your responsibility

Occupy study spaces or seats without booking

Bring in bulky items (e.g. suitcases)

Bring in scooters without a carrying bag

Remove your shoes, rest your feet on sofas, chairs and tables

Take photos and make videos without permission

Do not open the windows, as this affects the temperature in the library.

Biblioteca
Beato Pellegrino

Studi Letterari, Linguistici, Pedagogici
e dello Spettacolo